

Synopsis, Hiring America, Episode 101

This week on Hiring America:

Mary Kennedy Thompson, COO of Dwyer Group, a holding company of 14 service based franchises, talks about how her military experience in the Marines helped shape her success in the business world, and explains why franchising is one of the best opportunities for transitioning veterans.

USAA provides financial tips and resources to help military families develop and maintain financial success.